Make a Macaronisaurus

Materials:

- Macaronisaurus Sheet
- Cereal Box
- Glue Stick
- Scissors
- Crayons and Markers

Talk About It:

Macaroni and Imagination Make Magic

In the Abby's Flying Fairy School episode "Call It Macaronisaurus," Blogg magically brings his dinosaur macaroni art to life. What other fun things can you imagine bringing to life? A bunch of cotton balls could be a snowman or a fluffy sheep! Grab your craft supplies and make your creation come to life using your own imagination!

Make it:

Step 1: Things You'll Need

Collect the items from the materials list.

Little Hands Tip: What sounds do you think a macaronisaurus makes?

Step 2: Print It

Print out the Macaronisaurus Sheet.

Step 3: Color the Beast

Use crayons or markers to color the Macaronisaurus. Remember, this is a magical dinosaur, and it can be any color you want!

Step 4: Be Green

Unfold an empty cereal box so it is one flat piece of cardboard. Reusing household items for a different purpose is a great way to reduce waste. Explain to your child that "reuse" means to use again.

Little Hands Tip: What other things can you use again for toys or crafts?

Step 5: Glue It

Glue one finished Macaronisaurus sheet to the cereal box.

Step 6: Grown Up Step

Once the glue has dried, a parent should cut out the model along the dotted lines.

Step 7: Cut out the Macaronisaurus

Carefully cut out the model pieces from the other Macaronisaurus sheet.

Step 8: Match It

Match the paper pieces you just cut out with the cardboard models you already made. Then, glue the paper pieces to the opposite sides of the cardboard models.

Step 9: Snip It

Once you have the model complete, snip the solid grey lines to create slits by the neck, hip, arms, and legs.

Step 10: Slide It

Slide the arms into the slit near the neck and slide the legs into the slit by the hips.

ROAR!

Stomp around with your very own Macaronisaurus! Invite your child to make up her own magical adventure with the Macaronisaurus! What happens in the beginning, middle, and end of her story?
